Jig

The Jig section consists of four staves of music. The notation uses a simplified system with stems, beams, and flags to represent notes and rests. The first two staves are the first system, and the last two are the second system. The music features a mix of eighth and sixteenth notes, often beamed together. There are several measures with slurs and accents, and the piece concludes with a double bar line and repeat dots.

2 Beat Transition

Anicrusis into 2/4

A short musical notation for a 2-beat transition. It shows a half note followed by a quarter note with a slur over it, indicating a specific rhythmic pattern used to transition into the next section.

2/4 March

The 2/4 March section consists of four staves of music. The notation uses a simplified system with stems, beams, and flags. The first two staves are the first system, and the last two are the second system. The music features a mix of eighth and sixteenth notes, often beamed together. There are several measures with slurs and accents, and the piece concludes with a double bar line and repeat dots.
